1 Assessment you can trust

Insights

Tests developed and validated by Cambridge Assessment English, the world leaders in language assessment, to ensure they are accurate and meaningful.

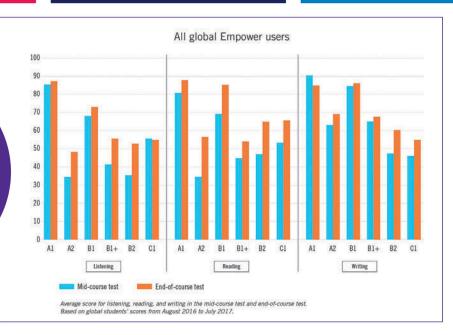

Content

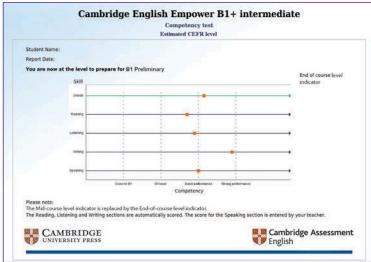

End-of-unit tests, mid- and endof-course competency tests and personalised CEFR test report forms provide reliable information on progress with language skills.

Results

Teachers can see learners' progress at a glance, and learners can see measurable progress, which leads to greater motivation.

Results of an impact study showing % improvement of Reading levels, based on global Empower students' scores over one year.

English for 10 years before university, and I didn't succeed. But now with Empower I know my level of English has changed.

Nikita, Empower Student, ITMO University, Saint Petersburg, Russia

2 Corpus-informed

Insights

Corpora can provide valuable information about the language items learners are able to learn successfully at each CEFR level.

Content

Two powerful resources – Cambridge Corpus and English Profile – informed the development of the Empower course syllabus and the writing of the materials.

Results

Learners are presented with the target language they are able to incorporate and use at the right point in their learning journey. They are not overwhelmed with unrealistic learning expectations.

Rich in practice

Insights

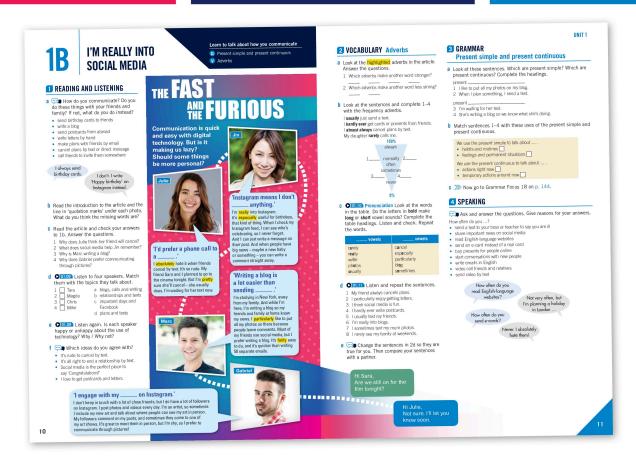

It is essential that learners are offered frequent and manageable opportunities to practise the language they have been focusing on.

Content

Throughout the Empower Student's Book, learners are offered a wide variety of practice activities, plenty of controlled practice and frequent opportunities for communicative spoken practice.

Results

Meaningful practice makes new language more memorable and leads to more efficient progress in language acquisition.

There are plenty of opportunities for personalisation.

SMALL TALK

Do you have problems when you meet people for the first time?

Is it difficult to think of what to talk about? Don't worry. You don't need to talk about yourself; ask the right questions and you can make the other person talk.

When you start a conversation with a new person, ask about the situation you're in and the people who are there:

What do you think of the party?

1..

Say something positive and follow it with a question:

This music's great. Do you know what it is? The match was great last night. Do you watch football?

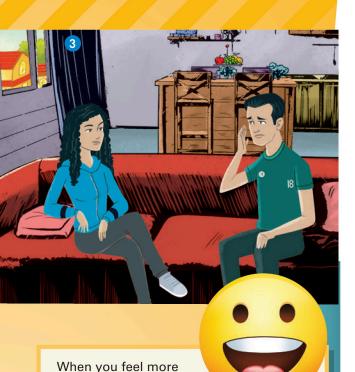

I really like your shoes. 3

Then ask personal questions about interests and hobbies to show you are interested:

Did you see the film? What was it like?

4. Which ones?
What was the last song you listened to?

What kind of music is that?

relaxed, ask personal questions about relationships and home life:

Where did you grow up? Are you married? Do you have any children?

Holidays are always a good topic if the conversation slows down:

Do you have any holiday plans? Where did you go on your last holiday?

You can ask about work and studies anytime:

or Where do you study?

But be careful - sometimes people don't want to talk about work at a party!

There are also some topics that are never a good idea to talk about:

Money - people usually think talking about money is rude. So unless you know people very well, don't ask:

7 or

Politics and religion - you don't want to start an argument!

Age – never guess anyone's age. They won't be happy if you get it wrong!

THE FAST AND FURIOUS

Jin

Communication is quick and easy with digital technology. But is it making us lazy? Should some things be more personal?

'I'd prefer a phone call to

I absolutely hate it when friends cancel by text. It's so rude. My friend Sara and I planned to go to the cinema tonight. But I'm pretty sure she'll cancel - she usually does. I'm waiting for her text now.

'Instagram means I don't anything.'

I'm really into Instagram. It's especially useful for birthdays, that kind of thing. When I check my Instagram feed, I can see who's celebrating, so I never forget. And I can just write a message on their post. And when people have big news - maybe a new baby or something - you can write a comment straight away.

Writing a blog is a lot easier than sending _

I'm studying in New York, away from my family. And while I'm here, I'm writing a blog so my friends and family at home know my news. I particularly like to put all my photos on there because people leave comments. Most of my friends use social media, but I prefer writing a blog. It's fairly easy to do, and it's quicker than writing 50 separate emails.

'I engage with my _ ____ on Instagram.'

I don't keep in touch with a lot of close friends, but I do have a lot of followers on Instagram. I post photos and videos every day. I'm an artist, so sometimes I include my new art and talk about where people can see my art in person. My followers comment on my posts, and sometimes they come to one of my art shows. It's great to meet them in person, but I'm shy, so I prefer to communicate through pictures!

2 VOCABULARY Adverbs

 - 1 Which adverbs make another word stronger?
 - 2 Which adverbs make another word less strong?
- b Look at the sentences and complete 1–4 with the frequency adverbs.

I usually just send a text.

I hardly ever get cards or presents from friends.

I almost always cancel plans by text.

My daughter rarely calls me.

c Doi:10 Pronunciation Look at the words in the table. Do the letters in bold make long or short vowel sounds? Complete the table headings. Listen and check. Repeat the words.
